

Frontline Families Free Volunteer Leader Certification Program For Veterans, Military Service and Family Members

Frontline Families, an AmeriCorps program at Giving DuPage, engages veterans, service members & their families to become volunteer leaders in our community. Once trained, they will lead volunteers (military & civilian) in community service projects to tackle some of our county's most pressing challenges such as affordable housing and suicide prevention.

Becoming a volunteer leader is a terrific opportunity to showcase your leadership skills while engaging in a cause you are passionate about. Volunteer leaders will manage & lead focused community service projects. Sharing their unique skills, talents and time while fostering a social & support network for the project team. Volunteer leaders & project team will promote volunteerism and giving back to their community while serving with pride!

Recruiting: 100 Volunteer leaders & 600 community project volunteer members

Training: 10 hour Points of Light program training - 2 hour service project - Lead a community project

Benefits: Free volunteer training certification - Resume building - Positive impact on your community
