

FRONTLINE FAMILIES

VOLUNTEER LEADERSHIP CERTIFICATION PROGRAM

WHAT IS THE FRONTLINE FAMILIES AMERICORPS PROGRAM?

Frontline Families is a new service program that engages and trains veterans, service members and their families to become volunteer leaders in our community.

Once trained, veterans and military families will lead volunteer teams (military & civilian) in community service projects to tackle pressing local challenges, such as affordable housing and suicide prevention.

Frontline Families also builds a future pipeline of volunteer support for community organizations.

POSITIVE OUTCOMES FOR VOLUNTEER LEADERS:

- Showcase natural leadership skills in support of a charitable cause
- Manage and lead large teams in focused community service projects
- Foster a social and support network of veterans, service members and military families
- Supports reintegration for veterans and their families through civic engagement
- Gain project management experience & include Volunteer Leader Certification on resume
- Promote service with pride and make a difference in our local community

WHO CAN PARTICIPATE?

- Veterans
- Service members
- Military families
- ALL BRANCHES of the military
